EDITORIAL

This year's 'Towers' is the product of much hard work and quite a lot of trial and error. I would like to thank those who not only survived a novice editor but showed considerable understanding for his plight. Having listened to criticisms of previous editors, Mrs. Rentzsch, Mr. Kemp and I have tried to re-create the style of the earlier 'Towers' which appear to be more pleasing.

I would like to sincerely thank the Penrith business community for their extremely generous support to our school magazine. In fact 'The Towers' tripled the previous highest donations record. This has allowed us to retain the 1985-86 sale price of $2 a copy despite increased production costs. Many thanks must also go to the Year 11 Magazine Committee who diligently collected the funds from the business community.

I would like to thank Mr. Kemp for the majority of the photographs and Mrs. Rentzsch for her editorial work. Thanks also to the Year Nine Magazine Group who worked on the layout and design of the magazine. I would also like to show my appreciation to those faculties who contributed material especially as I am aware of a confusion between the magazine and school newsletter. This year we have tried to stop the magazine from being purely an English and Sports Departments publication by encouraging all faculties to contribute and I think we have been partially successful. I guess change takes time.

Finally, I would like to thank the clerical staff whose efforts with typing and monitoring of funds has been indispensable. Thank you very much. I hope that the magazine is both interesting and enjoyable.
